Professional Graduate Certificate in Education

1. Academic Awards of the University

- 1.1 The University establishes academic awards under its degree awarding powers. The arrangements for the establishment of awards and their approval are detailed in the University's Academic Quality Framework. The awards approved for conferment from the University of Bedfordshire are stated in the academic regulations below together with the conferment arrangements.
- 1.2 There are curriculum development and academic approval mechanisms to create the courses and programmes of study which lead to those awards. These processes must be approved through the Academic Board as detailed in the Academic Quality Framework. These processes together with other policy and procedures in the Academic Quality Framework, are the mechanisms through AD[(A)2 (c)-

- 3.2 Awards are defined with a formal award description and an abbreviated form also specified, e.g., Certificate of Higher Education - CertHE. The coverage of an award can be further described and used in designated forms to specify scope and focus of the award - e.g., Master of Arts, the award being a Master's degree and the designation being 'of Arts'.
- 3.3 Awards are approved in named forms. This confirms that the award to be conferred on the student adequately and correctly summarises the successful completion of a particular course of studies. For example Certificate of Higher Education in Sports Studies; Bachelor of Arts in Graphic Design.
- 3.4 Awards may carry classification
